Baltimore, Maryland - The United States Attorney for the District of Maryland, Thomas M. DiBiagio, and Donald R. Totaro, District Attorney for Lancaster County, Pennsylvania provide the following statement with regard to the investigation into the death of Jonathan P. Luna.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Assistant U.S. Attorney Luna remain under investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the United States Marshals Service and the Pennsylvania State Police. The investigating agencies and prosecutors' offices continue to work jointly to find the person or persons responsible for this crime. No determination has been or can yet be made regarding the ultimate venue for prosecution as no such decision is possible until all the facts and circumstances are known.

Future statements will be issued through the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Maryland.
